Arthur W. Bryant

Arthur W. Bryant, Sr. received a degree in communication from WSU in 1971 and embarked on a successful career with Ford Motor Company, from which he retired in 1997.

Art is a long-time supporter of the University. He is the chairman of the Anthony Wayne Society Board of Directors and for more than ten years he has been involved in the Friends of Wayne State Political Action Committee as a donor and volunteer before becoming the group's chairman in December 2004. Art is a past president of the National Alumni Association (1995-96). WSU memberships include the Old Main Society and the Understudies (where he is the first man to hold membership). He is also Chairman of the Wayne/Ford Retirees Committee.

Art is a recipient of the Homer D. Strong Award for Volunteer Leadership from the National Alumni Association. He has been a member of the United States Naval Academy Alumni Association Board of Trustees and is the President of the Detroit Chapter of the Naval Academy Alumni Association.

He has been a member of the CFPCA Board of Visitors (BOV) since 2000 and currently serves as the BOV Liaison to the Capital Campaign.

Art is a 35 year resident of Grosse Pointe. He and his wife, Lynne, reside in Grosse Pointe Woods.
